MAN ATTACKS SERGEANT SCOTT

Called to Hotel at an Early Hour to Investigate Robbery

OUTLAW USES KNIFE

Attempts to Break Away and Stab Officer When Within a Few Yards of the Station House.

About five o'cloc this morning Andrew Kush and Jerry Fuller roomers in the Southland Hotel, Royal street, near King, discovered that they had been robbed during the night of $160 in money, a gold watch and a suit of clothes, and proceeded to the station house to report the matter. Sergeant Scott accompanied the men back to the hotel, where he found a man who had given his name as James Jones, 31 years old who says his home is in Quincy, Ill., suspected of having committed the robbery, about to leave the place. The stranger had a satchel, which the sergeant asked the privilege of searching. Jones protested, alleging that the officer should first procure a warrant. The sergeant exhibited his badge, and proceeded to search the receptacle. He found a suit of clothing and a gold watch belonging to one of the men who had made the complaint, a pistol, and several other articles. Upon searching Jones's pockets, a pair of iron knuckles was found in one of his pockets and several skeleton keys, together with $80, one-half of $160, the amount which had been stolen.

Jones was taken in custody and the sergeant and his prisoner started towards the station house. When they reached the alley on Fairfax street, a few yards south of the station, Jones told the sergeant to release his grip upon him, and he would walk along peaceably. Sergeant Scott said he would take no chances with him, when Jones drew a knife and attempted to stab his captor. During the tussel the left sleeve of the sergeant's coat was slashed and another thrust made at his left breast. The knife, however, failed to cut through the coat and other garments, and Sergeant Scott escaped injury. Jones was finally lodged in the station house and at nine o'clock this morning arraigned before the Police Court.

One of the proprietors of the Southland Hotel stated that the prisoner and another man who gave his name as J. McBelt occupied the same room during the night. They were strangers to him, and he had reason to suspect them from the first; hence he arose at several times during the night and made investigations.

The men who had been robbed identified their property—the watch and clothing. They work at the ship building plant.

McBelt had vanished before Sergeant Scott reached the hotel.

Jones was told that he could make a statement if he wished, but that he would not be requested to do so.

He said he met McBelt last night, went to the room in the hotel with him. While engaged in conversation McBelt produced the watch found in his possession and sold it to him for $5. When asked to give his reason for carrying a pistol, iron knockes and skeleton keys he appeared dumb founded.

The prisoner was ordered to be held for the action of the grand jury.

Kush claims he lost $160 and clothes valued at $35 and Fuller a watch and clothes.

SUCCESSFUL MUSICAL

Mme Lawson Delights Large and Appreciative Audience Last Night

The concert for benefit of the Presbyterian Mission building fund held in the Westfinster Building last evening with Madame Franceska Kaspar Lawson the well known colorature soprano as vocal soloist, Miss Virginia Schwab, pianist, and Miss Evelyn Howard, elocutionist, delighted a large and enthusiastic audience.

The opening number Leszt's Rhapsody Hongroise was given by Miss Schwab who plays with a firm brilliant almost masculine touch. Miss Schwab is be complimented on her fine memory, and left hand technique, she responded to an encore with Chopin's Butteedfly Etude.

Madame Lawson sung a trio of charming songs, the first, "Spring" which allowed her to display very beautiful and effective notes in the "Cucco Call." The second, better known "Sorter Miss You," in an entirely different style seemed especially to appeal to the audience.

The third, a little French gavotte song "You are Dancing Marchioness" by Le Maire, which showed the scope and versatility of Mrs. Lawson's beautifully trained voice. Mme. Lawson was happily accompanied by Miss Pearl Waugh.

Miss Howard showed great elocutionary ability in a sketch The Milliner's Bill which delighted the audience who insisted on an encore to which she responded with "The Race."

Madame Lawson's second number was the Polonaise from Mignow which she sang with great grace and flexibility, the purity of her high notes showing particularly in this charming Aria.

As an encore she gave "Daddy's Sweetheart" by Liza Lehman, which moved the audience to pleased laughter. Miss Schwab followed with Chopin Etude in E major, which she played with splendid technique. Miss Schwab plays with absolute sureness. She declined an encore. The first of the closing trio of songs by Madame Lawson was Liza Lehman's "Good Morning Brother Sunshine." Her clear enunciation lends much to the beauty of her singing. The second Arthur Penn's favor with the audience, being especially adapted to Madame Lawson's sympathetic voice.

The third and last, "The Americans Come." by Fay Foster gave a fine patriotic finish to a delightful programme.

Mme Lawson responded to vigorous recall with "Carry me Back to Old Virginny" which she sang with so much sweetness and pathos, as to bring tears to many eyes.

Everyone expressed themselves delighted with the evening's program.

TO END STARVATION WAGES.

British Bishop Refuses to Fill Pastorates That Don't Pay Well

Clergymen in Great Britain may strike for higher wages. At a recent conference of the Southwell Diocese at Derby the bishop delivered ultimatums to certain parishioners who asked that a minister be appointed for their churches. The bishop has refused to assign pastors for the parishes until they have assured him they will have a house and adequate food. Eight of the parishes of the diocese recently were combined into one.

The question of poor church wages has kept many aspirants to the ministry from being ordained and the church hierarchy has been asked not to establish any more $1,000 a year parishes. —(Kansas City Star.

DANCE LAST NIGHT AT W. C. C. S. C.

The War Camp Community Service girls were hostesses at an Easter Dance given for the men of the service and recently discharged men of the vicinity at the W. C. C. S. club house last night. The young ladies in their gaily colored gowns dancing with the men in navy blue and olive drab presented a most pleasing picture as they moved about the hall to the melodious strains of a large orchestra. At intermission a dainty buffet lunch was served in the lower hall. The soldiers present came from Camp Humuhreys, Fort Myer, Fort Hunt and Fort Washington. The marines who have just arrived here to do guard duty at the torpedo plant were present and have decided that Alexandria is the best place to which they could have been sent. Mrs. Percy Evans and Miss Lida McLaughlin, the club chaperones, assisted by Mrs. Carroll Pierce were in charge of the dancing and Mrs. L. A. French was in charge of the refreshments.

A TALK WITH AN ALEXANDRIA MAN

Mr. Frank E. Roat, Blacksmith of 107 South Payne Street, Tells His Experience.

There is nothing like a talk with one of our own citizens for giving hope and encouragement to the anxious sufferer from the dread kidney disease. We, therefore, give her an interview with an Alexandria man:

"I had trouble with my back," says Mr. Roat. It was weak and lame and sometimes the pain was pretty bad; I could hardly bend over or straighten up Mornings my back was so sore it felt like pins and needles when I touched it I also had bad headaches. Nights I had to get up five or six times, and when morning came I was all tired out. This went on until I was advised to use Doan's Kidney Pills. I got Doan's at Leadbeater's Drug Store and they certainly reached the spot. My kidneys acted regularly again and I got wonderful relief from the pains in my back. Since then I have used Doan's once in a while to keep my kidneys toned up."

DISCUSS COUNCIL MANAGER PLANS

Large Gathering Present at Mass Meeting at Chamber of Commerce

PROJECT ENDORSED

More Than Fifty Volunteer to Circulate Petitions Calling For an Election on the Subject.

More than two hundred citizens attending the Citizens' Meeting in the Auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce last night discussed the present and proposed City Government from all angles.

James R. Caton, the chairman of the Citizens' Committee, called the meeting to order, and in his opening remarks directed attention to the fact that the city has a bonded debt of $800,000 and a floating debt of approximately $100,000, and was spending each year more than it received in revenue.

He pointed out that there would have to be a day of settlement soon, and there were only two ways of meeting the situation, either for the present government and greatly increased taxes, or for the city government to be put on an economical business basis through a business administration.

He pointed out some of the ways in which business methods would curtail expenses, and emphasized very strongly the fact that he did not attach any blame to the present city officials, but that in his opinion they had accomplished as good results as could be expected from an antiquated system which had no provision for use of business methods, and a system which was devised and worked out over one hundred years ago.

The chairman then invited a general discussion of the matter and asked that any questions bearing on the matter be asked.

Carroll Pierce explained the position of the Chamber of Commerce in the matter. He pointed out that the Chamber of Commerce was a community affair, and was organized and composed of a large number of the citizens of Alexandria, and that the principle of the organization was to take up any matter affecting the welfare and advancement of Alexandria. In view of the conditions it was only just and proper for the Chamber of Commerce to take up and investigate the matter of city government, and as this investigation had developed that a change was necessary, the Chamber of Commerce had called a meeting of the citizens and turned over to them what data they had secured on the subject.

Mr. Pierce emphasized that no member of the Chamber of Commerce was interested in filling any public office, but had simply fulfilled the function for which the Chamber of Commerce was organized. They had made an exhaustive investigation of the matter and recommended it to the citizens meeting, and that he saw no reason why the voters of the city should not pass on the proposition.

Howard W. Smith gave his experience as a member of city council for six years and discussed present methods of transacting city business.

It was brought out in the discussion that fire apparatus purchased several years ago had cost several thousand dollars more than was necessary, on account of too much delay caused by reason of objections raised in the Council.

The proposition was discussed by W. A. Smoot, L. Ruben, W. F. Ficklin, E. R. Boyer, Geo. A Harlow, J. H. Trimyer, J. T. Harrison, and others, who expressed themselves as heartily in favor of the new plan, and believed it would yield untold benefits to the City of Alexandria.

John M. Johnson expressed himself as strongly in favor of a city manager, but thought a manager could be employed by the present city council, but the disadvantages of this plan were pointed out by others present.

A vote was taken to ascertain the sentiment of the meeting, and the council-manager form was endorsed by practically every one present, and about fifty men volunteered their services to circulate the petitions.

OLD HOUSE TAKES NEW NAME

Worth Hulfish & Sons Inc., Succeeds The Carlin Hulfish Company.

As will be seen by an announcement elsewhere in the Gazette the Carlin-Hulfish Co., has changed its name to that of Worth Hulfish and Sons Inc. Under the new title it will continue to carry on with renewed energy the wholesale hardware business at 315 King street Messrs. G. B. and J. F. Carlin having retired.

This house is among the oldest in the state, having been established seventy-five years ago by the late James F. Carlin, and has been in continuous existence ever since. It has never had a fire or closed its doors to business for any cause save that of respect for the Sabbath, legal holidays and death.

Mr. Caulin, when a boy learned the hardware business with John W. Massie a prominent merchant of this city during the early forties, and in 1844 began business on his own account just across the street from the present store. Later he moved to the west side of Royal street a few doors north of King street.

In 1856 he occupied the building and warehouse, 315 King street where he had formerly clerked.

In 1866 he purchased this property from the heirs of John W. Massie and improved it with a new front of iron.

In 1870 his two sons, Edwin R and George B. Carlin were taken into the firm with the title of James F Carlin and Sons, and under this management the business was operated until 1882 when Mr. Carlin died and left his estate to his widow during her life. With her consent the business continued under the same name until 1895 when she sold the stock and her interest to Worth Hulfish, Geo. B Carlin and J. F. Carlin who formed the partnership of James F. Carlin and Sons Company.

They expanded their business very much, and in 1906 the firm purchased the store building from Mr. Carlin's heirs and incorporated the firm under the name of Carlin-Hulfish Company.

During the past twelve years their out of town jobbing trade has continued to grow and extends throughout the adjoining counties of Virginia and Southern Maryland.

We wish for the new corporation the full measure of prosperity which they so richly deserve.

EVERY DAY HEROES

Thursday night, while the northwest wind was howling and the temperature dropping the northeastern heavens were seen by Alexandrians to be illumined, making it apparent that a fierce fire was raging not many miles from our city. Yesterday it became known that St. Mary's Industrial School for Boys, in Baltimore, had been destroyed. The fire broke out as the sun was sinking in the west and while all the boys were out upon the grounds of the institution; hence none was injured, but the firemen, who were soon at work, did not escape so easily, two having lost their lives while thirty-six others were more or less injured.

One of the papers of the monumental city in speaking of the heroism of firemen and the dangers to which they are so often subjected says:

"The dangers attending the fireman's vocation were once more tragically demonstrated at the fire which destroyed St. Mary's Industrial School for Boys. Two men killed and thirty-six injurd, seven of them seriously, represent an unusual number of casualties for an average day in a city like Baltimore, it is true, but there is not a day in the course of the year which does not claim its victims in some part of the country from those who belong to this perilous service.

"We take our fire departments so much as a matter of course that we fail to realize the constant hazards to which they are exposed. Firemen are, in fact, soldiers who are liable to be summoned to the battle field at any moment of the twenty-four hours, and to whom death is likely to beckon whenever they are called but. They must be not only fearless men, but men who court danger and who can be depended upon to meet any and every emergency in a spirit of absolute self-sacrifice. The firemen who were killed or injured at the St. Mary's fire knew that they were going into the jaws of death when they performed their perilous task, but not one of them flinched or hesitated. They are added to the grand army of those who make us proud of humanity. In calling the roll of heroes let us never forget the firemen. They are heroes 365 days in twelve months."

Half a century ago a fire occurred in a store on the east side of Fairfax street, near King. While the flames were spreading it was ascertained that a keg of powder was in the cellar. One of the gallant firemen, although realizing the great danger to which he would be exposed, made his way into the cellar and brought out the powder and placed it far away from the fire.

MEXICO AND MONROE

The Monroe Doctrine saved Mexico from the Mexicans. Napoleon III took advantage of our preoccupation with what used to be spoken of, occasionally, as "the late unpleasantness" to set up a branch office of the Hapsburg monarchy in Mexico. As soon as the civil war was over Sheridan and 50,000 troops were ordered to the Rio Grande, the French army was withdrawn, and the Mexicans were enabled to overthrow Maximilian and restore a Government of their own.

And now Carranza's Government announces that it "has not recognized and will not recognize the Monroe Doctrine, or any other doctrine that attacks the sovereignty and independence of Mexico," Carranza would not be president of Mexico if the United States had not forced Huerta out of his usurped office.

As an exchange says, "the Monroe Doctrine is defensive for ourselves and for other Governments on this hemisphere. It has been used for the defense of Mexico and for the defense of Venzuela. It has never been used for conquest or aggression. It does not matter to us what Mexico thinks of the Monroe Doctrine, unless it attempts to sell itself to a foreign Government. But this formal repudiation of the Monroe Doctrine brands Venustiano Carranza as the most pig-headed Mexican that we have had to deal with. We shall not give up the Monroe Doctrine. We have had it inserted in the covenant of the League of Nations."

ITALY'S MISTAKEN STAND

It is impossible for any fair-minded person to resist the perfect logic and absolute justice of President Wilson's statement of the reasons influencing the peace conference to deny Italy's claim to Fiume, even at the cost of a temporary break in the friendly relations with that country. From every standpoint, that of secret diplomacy no less than that of honorable dealing and the safeguarding of future peace, the position of the Italian Government is untenable and unreasonable.

When Great Britain, France and Russia made the so-called treaty of London with Italy in 1915, previous to the entrance of that nation into the war, it was expressly stipulated that in the event of Allied victory Italy should receive as a portion of her reward Trieste, Pola and a part of the Dalmatian coast. Fiume, it was unanimously agreed, should go to Crotia. A study of the map of what once constituted Austria-Hungary is necessary to see why this exception was made. A vast territory, now embracing Czecho-Slovakia, Poland and Rumania, is dependent upon the two ports of Trieste and Fiume for access to the Adriatic, an dthrough it to the Mediterranean. With Trieste in the hands of Italy, it was felt, even by the Italians themselves in 1915, that another port should be left open to serve the commercial needs of a population aggregating not far from 100,000,000. To bottle up this great hinterland would be an unspeakable outrage, and would be a repetition of the sordid and oppressive tactics which Austria employed against Servia in denying it an Adriatic harbor and which played an important part in bringing on the world war.—(Philadelphia Record.

Editor Gazette:

For the information of parents who have expressed a desire to know something of the Junior Guard movement, which I instituted in this city some five years ago, would say that this organization is a branch of the Great American Order, the Improved Order of Red Men of which there are two tribes in our city with a combined membership of close on to four hundred Osecola No. 4 and Seminole No. 35.

The Junior branch is known as Lone Star Congress No. 1, Improved I. O. R. M., and is composed of boys from twelve to seventeen years of age and has for its object the making of these boys who hold membership therein, honest, God fearing, home and country loving, moral, upright, obedient, kind, thoughtful and self-respecting patriotic citizens. No parents could do no better service to the community at large than to urge their sons to become members of this splendid purely American Order.

The ritualistic ceremony, which these boys are taught is extremely beautiful, and wherein is portrayed lessons of loyalty and patriotism which will remain indelibly stamped upon their minds.

These meetings for the Juniors are held from seven to eight o'clock on the second and fourth Thursdays in each month, in Odd Fellows' Hall, so that their school duties may not be interfered with and that they may return to their homes in due season.

An excellent organization Mr. Editor, to better the condition of the boys of our community, since it directs their thoughts, in channels of a high and lofty character, great results in making them less inclined to drift with the great world tide of youngsters who are continually getting into mischief.

HUNS WANTED ISLANDS

Germany Wanted Caribbean Stronghold—U. S. Nipped Plan

Germany planned to get control of the Virgin Islands and with this strategic possession in the Caribbean it was the intention of the Huns to menace the Panama Canal and the whole Gulf rgion.

Senator William S. Kenyon, of Iowa ,made this declaration upon his return to Washington, after a trip on a submarine chaser from Porto Rico to the Virgin Islands.

"The United States got possession of the Virgin Islands just in time—and wisely," he said. "The Germans had designs on them. If they had succeeded in obtaining possession, they might have succeeded in wreaking great havoc before we could have stopped them.

At St. Thomas, a splendid harbor, the building of the Hamburg-American Company has concrete foundations eight feet thick. What was the object? To plant guns there and command the harbor, of course.

TO PROSECUTE CLANSMEN

Special Counsel Designated by The Court to Try Edgar Morris.

Charlottesville, Va., April 26.—C. E. Gentry, of the Albemarle bar, has been designated by Judge Fishburn as special prosecutor of cases pending in the Circuit Court of Greene county against Edgar Morris, mountain clans man, charged with the murder of Magistrate Bluford Sullivan on March 29, and his "pal," Harmon Shifflet, accused of aiding Morris to escape. Associated wit hhim will be Charles W. Allen, of Charlottesville, who has been employed by relatives of the dead magistrate to push the cases when called two weeks hence.

Morris failure to appear at Stanardville Monday to answer the charge of shooting James Morris, Sullivan's brother-in-law, spelled the financial ruin of his father, Deputy Sheriff Morris, alleged to be worth only $500 the amount of the bond he gave.

CUT THIS OUT

Special Notice: Dr. Frederick Jacobson says that phosphates are just as essential to any woman who tires easily, is nervous or irritated, worn out or looks haggard and pale, to make a strong, robust, vigorous, healthy body, as they are to make corn, wheat or any vegetable plant grow strong and healthy. The luck of phosphates is the cause of all enemic conditions and the administration of 5-grain Argo-Phosphate Tablets will increase the strength and endurance 100 per cent in a few weeks time in many instances. Dispensed by Richard Gibson and The Rexall Store.

DIES TRYING TO SAVE TRAIN

Southern R. R. Employe Crushed Between Two Cars.

Danville, Va., April 26.—R. H. Palmer, for 25 years an employe of the Southern Railway, was instantly killed Thursday at Keysville when he was trying to prevent an accident to a passenger train. Seeing the front truck of a Pullman on the Richmond-Danville train split the switch at a siding, he leaped aboard with the intention of pulling the emergency cord. In the vestibule between two cars he was literally crushed flat. Only one coach of the passenger train was derailed and there were no injuries to passengers.

Palmer is survived by his widow and several children.

OH MY STOMACH

"I had stomach trouble so badly that nothing I ate would digest as it should," said Sadie E. Hamilton, Portland, Ore., as she began a remarkable story of the relief she has secured from Argo-Phosphate, the new reconstructive, stomach tonic and system purifier.

"Everything that I ate would lie in my stomach like a lump," she explained. "Gas would form and I would suffer distress all the time. I got so I could hardly keep anything down. Trying to get relief, I had my stomach pumped out, but even this did not help me as I continued just as bad.

"I kept hearing so much about Argo Phosphate that I thought maybe it might help me and I decided to try it. I have taken two bottles and to my surprise I am already feeling fine. I can eat anything and I am not troubled at all.

"I am completely rid of my old stomach trouble that I had for three years. I have not felt so well for years and I am certainly glad to endorse Argo-Phosphate because I want others to be helped by the wonderful medicine."

"The spirit of wanting to help others is what makes suffering men and women give these splendid public endorsements of Argo-Phosphate," said a local druggist. Dispensed by Richard Gibson and The Rexall Store.

SHOE CONSERVATION

W. H. Kelley, a lumber salesman, of Omaha, found Neolin Soles so tough and durable that one pair of soles served on a second pair of uppers after the first pair of uppers had worn out in ten months of hard walking.

And he says, "Those same soles will stand another ten months of constant daily wear."

This is unusual service even for Neolin Soles but Mr. Kelley's experience should indicate to you a method of cutting down those rising shoe bills you have to meet. Simply make sure the new shoes you buy are Neolin soled and have worn shoes repaired with these soles which are scientifically made to be comfortable, waterproof and exceedingly long-wearing. They are made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels, guaranteed to outwear any other heels.

From Three Years' Suffering, Says Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schild, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work.

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardi. I took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent, fr I have never had any headache since taking Cardui.

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. It did wonders for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended in medical books as being of benfit in female troubles, and 40 years of use has proven that the books are right. Begin taking Cardui today.

Tires When Your Tires "Cash in" Your Checks

Just as certainly as you buy a tire, you know that some day it will "cash in its checks"—and yours!

That day you'll measure its mileage against the sum you paid for it. Not until then, probably, will you know whether that brand of tires really gives you your moneys' worth—

Unless those tires be Diamonds. You can count on Diamonds to roll up 5,000, 6,000 and 8,000 miles persistently—though they COST LESS than most other tires.

For example, in motor driving with chains, 341 Diamonds averaged over 6,000 miles on Quaker Cab Co. taxis in Philadelphia. The Terms Co. with over 500 cars, averages between 6,000 and 8,000 miles with Diamonds.

Why not cut your tire upkeep with a Diamond?

THEATRES

RICHMOND—The Great Nazimova.

"Toys of Fate" What are any of us, except toys of fate? That's what a man says when he is "blue,"—when things will not go right,—when destiny itself seems to balk him in every effort. But, as Browning says,

"Sometimes the worst turns the best to the brave,
The black moment's at end."

Well, that is the way it is with Azah, the fascinating gypsy princess in "Toys of Fate," at the Richmond tonight, in which the great Russian artiste, Nazimova, stars. When there seems to be no way out,—when misery has taken possession of her soul,—then comfort, with its healing power revives and refreshes, and love gladdens her.

GRAND THEATRE

"A whirlwind of action and a riot of fun, and typically Fairbanks," is the way Managers Rose and Siegel describe the new Douglas Fairbanks film, "Reaching for the Moon," produced for Artcraft, coming to the Grand Theater next Monday. With New York and Italy as backgrounds, extraordinary "film punches" are presented, interspersed with flashes of real comedy. The story allowed spectacular treatment, and Artcraft has produced it on a lavish scale, making it a notable offering, and one of the most pretentious yet issued from the Artcraft studios.

Also William Duncan in "The Man of Might."

INGOMAR—William Russell

"Brass Buttons" at the Ingomar Theatre tonight is a five reel feature, the fifth of the series of William Russell Productions, ot be released through the Pathe Exchange system, starring "Big Bill"—athletic an ingratiating as ever. It has an uncommonly interesting plot, blending romance, comedy and stirring action is exactly the right proportions.

OPPOSE JOINING LEAGUE

Tokio, April 26.—The convention of the League of Racial Equality yesterday afternoon adopted a resolution declaring Japan will not become a member of the league of nations until the league cease to discriminate against the Japanese.

Several members of both houses of the Djet attended the convention. Representative Minoura read a speech by former Premier Ouma, advocating the action taken.

Japanese newspapers report that popular indignation over the action of the league of nations in rejecting Japan's demands for racial equality steadily is rising.

There is some talk that the Hara government will be attacked if it does not take a firm stand on the matter.
